As the elders pass
 down the stories,
 traditions, and
 wisdom of the Wurundjeri people,
 they create a bridge
 for the young blood,
 nurturing a deep
 connection to the
 land and its heritage, offering them
 a unique perspective on their identity
 and place in this culturally diverse
 neighborhood.

Engagement

Indigenous

INDOOR GARDEN
 Using nature as a medium to encourage participation and awaken the young blood's sense of belonging to the land.

GATHERING STAIR

Stair halls in children's care spaces serve as more than just functional connectors between different levels.

GRASSY SLOPES

As a dynamic and natural environment for kids to explore, play, and develop essential physical and sensory skills.
